Shabbat May 4-5, 2001: A 25th Anniversary Celebration of Cantor David Lefkowitz's Tenure with the Park Avenue Synagogue

The Shabbat of Friday evening, May 4th through Saturday, May 5th will be one of great celebration for our synagogue community as we will be honoring Cantor David Lefkowitz for his 25 years of outstanding and devoted service to our congregation. This Shabbat promises to be one of the greatest Park Avenue Synagogue occasions of recent years. The entire congregation is invited to attend and to participate in all of the planned events.

Cantor Lefkowitz has taken us on a remarkable journey during the past 25 years, always striving to enhance the beauty and meaning of our worship; introducing us to the work of important contemporary composers and that of the great masters who were influenced by the countries and cultures within which they lived. He has brought us 44 complete thematic Friday evening and Shabbat morning liturgical music services, many of whose compositions have become congregational favorites. We have heard the classics of the British tradition, the grand legacy of the synagogues of Germany, and Sephardic music from many lands. And he has brought us home to the evolving, contemporary synagogue music of America and Israel, hoping to pass the traditions of the past to the next generation. An important part of that legacy is the large grouping of his own compositions, numbering in the 100's, created for our daily, Shabbat, festival and High Holy Day services.

The Friday evening service will begin the celebration and will include the participation of some of Cantor Lefkowitz's distinguished colleagues. The Shabbat morning service will incorporate a rich representation of the many musical prayer components that bear Cantor Lefkowitz's unique signature-contemporary compositions both familiar and new-and the classical gems he has preserved and presented throughout the years. Once again, or for the first time, you will hear the broad stylistic variety of our worship music. The service will include innovative concepts as well as ample opportunity for congregational participation.

Our gifted organist, Neil Robinson, will conduct the Synagogue Concert Choir and the Congregational Singers, including students from our religious school. The service will be followed by a festive Kiddush.

Our celebration will continue after the conclusion of Shabbat with a gala black tie reception and dinner dance, at which former assistant cantors will offer their own tributes to Cantor Lefkowitz. A leading dance orchestra will provide music to suit every dancer's taste, including the hora. An elegant dinner will be served and words of appreciation spoken.

Invitations are in the mail. Mark your calendar now and plan to attend this very special Shabbat to pay tribute to Cantor David Lefkowitz for his dedication to Park Avenue Synagogue and for the contributions he has made to our congregation and to the cantorate.

The Jews of Tunisia

The history of Jewish settlement in Tunisia probably dates back to the year 70 of the Common Era when Jews fled from the destroyed Jerusalem and sought refuge there.

The rule of the Romans and later of the various Islamic dynasties brought prosperity and scholarship to the Jews for the most part, and by the end of the 19th century, there were over 60,000 Jews scattered throughout the country.

When the French gave independence to Tunisia in 1954, for one reason or another, most of the Jewish population left: many to France and others to Israel. Today, only some 2,000 or so remain.

I had always hoped to visit the island of Djerba, where a little under 1,000 Jews remain, and in February, my wife and I traveled there to make contact with that community. According to local tradition, Jews came there during the reign of Solomon, and a family of Kohanim fleeing Jerusalem in the year 70 C.E. is said to have transported one of the temple gates to Djerba. In the 19th and 20th centuries, there were yeshivot, Hebrew printing presses and a most active congregation centered around the Ghriba Synagogue and synagogues in various towns of the island. Many people emigrated to Israel, but the eight or nine hundred who remain still maintain a synagogue, yeshivah, day schools for girls and for boys (separate), and walking around the town, one sees notices in Hebrew outside the jewelry shops saying Beruchim Ha-Baim or welcome.

Nearby, on the mainland, there is a small congregation in the town of Zarzis. The children are beautiful and study with their rabbi with great diligence; and, it seems, that everyone speaks Hebrew, which made it easier for me to speak to the children and their teachers in every town.

In the capital, Tunis, we spent some time in the Jewish Day School (about 70 pupils) run by Lubavitch. The old rabbi (Rabbi Pinson), who has been in the country for over 40 years, was so thrilled to be able to speak Yiddish with me. Later, we attended one of his classes where he taught in French.

The Grand Synagogue on one of the main streets of the capital is guarded by policemen who are very courteous to Jewish visitors.

Other towns, such as Sousse, still have small amounts of Jews and synagogues, which are often more active in the summer when former residents and tourists come from France and other countries.

The local Jews complained to us that these people were not coming at the moment because of the tense situation in Israel. They pointed out that although Tunisia is a Moslem state friendly with Arafat and the Palestinians, this in no way effects their respect for their Jewish population. It is expected that many former Tunisians will go to the Lag B'Omer celebration in Djerba, which, apparently, is an amazing event.

Tunisia is rich with Roman remains and the mosaics to be found around the country are truly outstanding. Overall, it is a quiet place with none of the poverty and hassling that goes on elsewhere. The few days we spent in

Caroline Alexa Rubin

Caroline Alexa Rubin
April 21, 2001

Caroline Rubin attended the Park Avenue Synagogue Early Childhood Center and has been a student in the Park Avenue Synagogue Congregational Hebrew School since kindergarten.

She is in the seventh grade at the Riverdale Country School, which she has attended since kindergarten. Her favorite subjects are math and science, and she loves to draw and write fiction.

After school, Caroline enjoys playing tennis and field hockey, spending time with her friends, and listening to music. She is also a movie buff and an avid theatergoer. In addition to all of these interests, Caroline is very artistic and, besides drawing, has taken classes in silver jewelry and pottery.

During the summer, she enjoys water skiing and gymnastics at Camp Vega in Kents Hill, Maine.

Caroline has a younger brother, Jake, who also attends the Park Avenue Synagogue Congregational Hebrew School and will be Bar Mitzvah in 2003.

Steven Benjamin Siegelbaum
April 28, 2001

Steven Siegelbaum's Jewish education at the Park Avenue Synagogue began in the second grade when he moved to the Upper East Side. Previously, he had attended religious school at the Town and Village Synagogue.

Steven attends Wagner Junior High School, where he excels in science, participates on the math team, and plays French horn in the band. As an inquisitive "mad scientist," he successfully endeavors to perform many scientific experiments at home with only occasional disastrous results.

His volunteer work includes helping teachers before school, tutoring children at P.S. 6 and leading their after school "Star Lab" space program.

Steven has spent the past three summers at Camp Eisner in the Berkshires, which he refers to as his utopia.

His favorite pastimes include being with his friends, skateboarding, ice skating, or just grabbing a bite to eat. He is a true proponent of the idea that "life is with people!"

In Celebration of Passover

Funds For Ma'ot Hittin

It is an ancient tradition among our people to help our less fortunate fellow Jews celebrate Passover by contributing funds for Ma'ot Hittin, literally "money for wheat," the wheat used to make matzah.

If you wish to do so, please send your contribution to the Park Avenue Synagogue Welfare Fund and designate it for the Passover Fund.

Selling Hametz

Members of the congregation who wish to "sell their hametz" through the offices of Rabbi Lincoln may do so by calling his secretary during business hours at 369-2600. Offerings may be made to the Park Avenue Synagogue Welfare Fund.

The Food Pantry suggests that when you physically rid your home of hametz, you donate the food to the Yorkville Common Pantry for distribution to the hungry poor in our neighborhood. You will be performing a double mitzvah by bringing your hametz to the synagogue between March 28-April 4 for this purpose.

Project Ezra

Our high school students will be assisting Project Ezra deliver Kosher for Passover food packages to the elderly members of Project

Ezra on Sunday, April 1st from 10 A.M. to 2 P.M. Volunteer adults with cars are needed to drive the high school students around the Lower East Side. If you would like to volunteer to help, please call Misha Avramoff at Project Ezra at 982-4124 between 11 A.M. and 3 P.M.

Project Dorot

We are invited to assist Project Dorot reach out to elderly poor living on the Upper West Side by delivering Passover packages to them.

There are several things we can do to help. We can purchase and/or collect Kosher for Passover foods and deliver them to the offices of Project Dorot. We can volunteer to help deliver Passover packages to elderly persons. For more information or to volunteer, please call Project Dorot at 769-2850.

Service For The Firstborn

On Thursday morning, April 5th at the 7:15 A.M. service, the rabbi will conduct a Siyum for the firstborn.

Congregational Sedarim

Traditional seders will take place at the synagogue on the first and second nights of Passover, Saturday and Sunday, April 7 & April 8 at 8:15 P.M. following the 7:15 P.M. evening services. Both seders will be conducted by Rabbi Miriam Berkowitz.

Passover Dietary Laws

Prohibited Foods

Prohibited Foods include: leavened bread, cakes, biscuits, crackers, cereal, coffee with cereal derivatives in them, wheat, barley, oats, spelt, rye, and all liquids containing ingredients or flavors made from grain alcohol. In addition, most Ashkenazic authorities have added the following foods to the above list: rice, corn, millet, legumes (beans, peas, peanuts; but string beans are permitted). Some Ashkenazic authorities permit, while others forbid the use of legumes in a form other than its natural state, for example, corn sweeteners, corn oil, soy oil, peanut oil. Sephardic authorities permit the use of all of the above. Consult Rabbi Lincoln for guidance in the use of these products.

Permitted Foods

A. The following foods require no kosher lePesah label if purchased prior to Pesah: unopened packages or containers of natural coffee (without cereal additives), sugar, pure tea, salt, pepper, natural spices, fruit juices with no additives (frozen, canned, or bottled), frozen (uncooked) vegetables (for legumes, see above), milk, butter, cottage cheese, cream cheese, tuna in water (no oil added), frozen (uncooked) fruit (with no additives), baking soda.

B. The following foods require no kosher lePesah label if purchased either before or during Pesah: fresh fruits and vegetables (except for legumes above), eggs, fresh fish and fresh meat.

C. The following foods require a kosher lePesah label if purchased either before or during Pesah: All baked products (matzoh, cakes, matzoh flour, farfel, matzoh meal, and any products containing matzoh), wine, vinegar, liquor, oils, dried fruits, candy, chocolate flavored milk, ice cream, yogurt, and soda.

D. The following foods require a kosher lePesah label if purchased during Pesah: Processed foods (canned, frozen, or bottled): milk, butter, juices, vegetables, fruit, milk products, spices, coffee, tea, and fish, as well as all foods listed in category C.

Detergents: If permitted during the year, powdered and liquid detergents do not require a kosher lePesah label.

Medicine: Since hametz binders are used in many pills, the following guides should be followed: If the medicine is required for life sustaining therapy, it may be used during Pesah. If it is not for life sustaining therapy, some authorities permit, while others prohibit. Consult Rabbi Lincoln. In all cases, capsules are preferable.

Kashering of Utensils

The process of kashering utensils depends on how the utensils are used. According to halakhah, leaven can be purged from a utensil by the same process in which it was absorbed in the utensil. Therefore, utensils used in cooking are kashered by boiling, those used in broiling are kashered by fire and heat and those used only for cold food are kashered by rinsing.

A. Earthenware (china, pottery, etc.) may not be kashered. But fine translucent chinaware which has not been used for over a year may be used if scoured and cleaned in hot water.

B. Metal (wholly made of metal) used in fire (spit, broiler) must first be thoroughly scrubbed and cleansed and then made as hot as possible. Those used for cooking and eating (silverware, pots) must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned and completely immersed in boiling water. Pots have water boiled in them which will overflow the rim. The utensils should not be used for a period of at least 24 hours between the cleaning and the immersion in boiling water. Metal baking utensils cannot be kashered.

C. Oven and Ranges: Every part that comes in contact with food must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned. Then, oven and range should be heated as hot as possible for a half hour. If there is a broil setting, use it. Self-cleaning ovens should be scrubbed and cleaned and then put through the self-cleaning cycle. Continuous cleaning ovens must be kashered in the same manner as regular ovens. Microwave

March 28 to April 4 Yorkville Common Pantry Food Collection

(Sponsored by the Tikkun Olam Committee for Community Outreach)

After cleaning your kitchens for Passover, please bring your boxes and cans of unopened, non-perishable hametz (foods prohibited during Passover) to Park Avenue Synagogue. Collection containers will be placed throughout the building from Wednesday, March 28 to Wednesday, April 4. All goods will be donated to the Yorkville Common Pantry. Park Avenue Synagogue is a sponsor of this local agency that helps the needy in our community.

Annual Food Pantry Shabbat Saturday, April 14

As it does every year, the Park Avenue Synagogue will honor the students in the Rabbi Judah Nadich High School who commit themselves weekly, year-round to the important mitzvah of feeding the poor and hungry in our community. They do this through the congregation's Food Pantry Project.

This annual tribute to them will take place during the Shabbat morning service on Saturday, April 14.

Since the continuation of this project depends upon the financial support of the entire congregation, plan to renew your own support of one of our synagogue's most worthwhile programs.

We Take Pride In

Park Avenue Synagogue extends a hearty Mazal Tov to:

Dr. Ilisse Perlmutter, who has been inducted into the American College of Psychiatrists.

Judy Wesalo Temel, who wrote the fifth edition of the Bond Market Association's book, Fundamentals of Municipal Bonds, recently released by John Wiley & Sons. The book reflects her extensive knowledge of the market based on her career at broker-dealer firms such as Goldman, Sachs & Co.

Passover Story Hour For 2 to 6 Year Olds Tuesday, April 3

May our people's story continue to be told to each new generation! From 6 to 7 p.m. on Tuesday, April 3rd, bring your children, dressed in their pajamas, to hear wonderful stories about the holiday of Pesach. Passover begins on Saturday evening, April 7th with

The Men's Club looks forward to seeing you there.

Head of the North American Conference on Ethiopian Jewry Barbara Ribakove Gordon To Speak at WEG Open Program Monday evening, April 30

The entire congregation is invited to the Women's Evening Group's program event at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, April 30th at which Barbara Ribakove Gordon will be WEG's guest speaker.

In 1982, a handful of dedicated men and women met in her New York apartment to organize the North American Conference on Ethiopian Jewry (NACOEJ). Today, under her leadership, NACOEJ has more than 60,000 supporters and a record of having rescued thousands of Ethiopian Jews from famine, civil war and persecution.

In Israel, with the encouragement of Israeli authorities, NACOEJ creates and administers essential educational programs for Ethiopian Jews from elementary school through high school, college and graduate school.

Barbara Ribakove Gordon has a busy schedule as a speaker. She travels frequently to Israel, Ethiopia and throughout the U.S. and Canada on behalf of Ethiopian Jews. Formerly a journalist, Ms. Ribakove Gordon holds a B.A. from the University of Wisconsin.

Mark your calendars now and plan to attend this WEG program event to hear the leader of one of the most fascinating events in recent Jewish history!

The usual refreshments will be served with time for socializing with fellow congregants and friends.

WEG Members Only Guided Tour of Hebrew Union College Art Exhibit Monday, May 21, 2001

Save the date, Monday evening, May 21st from 6 to 8 p.m. and plan to join the Women's Evening Group for its special guided tour of the "Living in the Moment: Contemporary Artists Celebrate Jewish Times" exhibition at Hebrew Union College. This is a "for members only" event which will begin with a cocktail reception from 6 to 7 p.m., followed by a private guided tour of the exhibit, which will be led by Jean Rosensaft, director of the exhibit and Park Avenue Synagogue member.

Watch for further details in the May issue

ovens, which do not cook the food by means of heat, should be cleaned and then a cup of water should be placed in it. Then the oven should be turned on until the water disappears. A microwave oven that has a browning element cannot be kashered.

D. Glassware: Authorities disagree as to the method for kashering drinking utensils. One opinion requires soaking in water for three days, changing the water every 24 hours, while the other opinion requires only a thorough scrubbing before Pesah or putting it through a dishwasher.

E. Dishwasher: After not using the machine for a period of 24 hours, a full cycle with detergent should be run.

F. Electrical Appliances: If the parts that come into contact with hametz are removable, they can be kashered in the appropriate way (if metal, follow the rules for metal utensils). If the parts are not removable, the appliance cannot be kashered. (All exposed parts should be thoroughly cleaned.)

G. Tables, closets, and counters: If used with hametz, they should be thoroughly cleaned and covered, and then they may be used.

H. Kitchen sink: A metal sink can be kashered by a thorough cleaning, and by pouring boiling water over it. A porcelain sink should be clean and a sink rack used. If, however, dishes are to be soaked in a porcelain sink, a dish basin must be used.

I. Hametz and non-Passover utensils: Non-Passover dishes, pots and hametz whose ownership has been transferred, should be separated, locked up or covered, and marked so as to prevent accidental use.

the desert viewing the troglodyte dwellings of the Berbers were most fascinating as well. A visit to a British War Cemetery with many stars of David on the graves reminded us of the heavy fighting that took place in World War II. The American Cemetery in Carthage has a Jewish Chapel and, I understand, is most impressive as well.

It should come as a source of pride and satisfaction to us that every endeavor of the Jewish community is supported and maintained by the Joint Distribution Committee, and it is no exaggeration to say that there could not be Jewish life without their participation.

Letter From Theodore Cardinal McCarrick, Archbishop of Washington, to Rabbi David H. Lincoln

February 28, 2001

Dear Rabbi David,

Thank you so much for your very gracious note on the occasion of my appointment as a Cardinal. I am grateful to you and to your congregation for your good wishes and hopefully for your prayers.

My life has taken some very quick bounces in the last couple of months and I hope that I will still be able to serve the Lord as He wants me to serve Him.

I treasure the memory of my meetings at Park Avenue Synagogue and your own special friendship. May the Lord continue to bless you and those you serve in the years ahead.

With every good wish,...

Book of the Month:

Tom Segev, One Palestine Complete: Jews and Arabs Under the British Mandate

Tom Segev's acclaimed works, 1949 and The Seventh Million, overturned accepted views of the history of Israel. Now, Segev explores the dramatic period before the creation of the state, when Britain ruled over "one Palestine, complete" (as noted in the receipt signed by the High Commissioner) and when its promise to both Jews and Arabs that they would inherit the land set in motion the conflict that haunts the region to this day. Drawing on a wealth of untapped archival material, Segev reconstructs a tumultuous era (1917 to 1948) of limitless possibilities and tragic missteps. He introduces the legendary figures-General Allenby, Lawrence of Arabia, David Ben-Gurion-as well as an array of pioneers, secret agents, diplomats, and fanatics. He tracks the steady advance of Jews and Arabs toward confrontation and with his hallmark originality puts forward a radical new argument: that the British, far from being pro-Arab, as commonly thought, consistently favored the Zionist position, and did so out of the mistaken and anti-Semitic-belief that Jews turned the wheels of history. Rich in unforgettable characters, sensitive to all perspectives, One Palestine Complete brilliantly depicts the decline of an empire, the birth of one nation, and the tragedy of another.

April Events in the Park Avenue Synagogue Congregational School

The following three events will take place in the elementary school during the month of April:

- Thursday, April 19th, the students will participate in a special program for Yom Hashoa.
- Saturday, April 21st, the Daled grade will have a parent/student "Together" program from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. The topic will be "Israel."
- Saturday, April 25th, the students will celebrate Yom Haatzmaut, Israel's Independence Day.

April Events in the Rabbi Judah Nadich High School

Two major events will take place in the high school during the month of April.

- First, on Wednesday, April 18th, the students will have a special program commemorating the Holocaust.
- Second, on Wednesday, April 25th, they will celebrate Yom Haatzmaut, Israel's Independence Day.

The Park Avenue Synagogue Bereavement Group

Park Avenue Synagogue has formed a Bereavement Group for those who have lost loved ones or close friends. It is facilitated by Dr. Sheila Erlich, a licensed psychologist.

The group will meet at 7:30 p.m. on the following three Wednesdays in April through June:

- Wednesday, April 18
- Wednesday, May 30
- Wednesday, June 20

For additional information about this group, please call Rabbi Kenneth Stern at 369-2600.

Condolences

Park Avenue Synagogue extends heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved of our congregation and to their families. To:

Mrs. Vivian Bernstein, upon the death of her mother, Eva Glazer.

Mr. H. Paul Burak, upon the death of his mother, Bette H. Burak.

The family of the late Helen Kaufman.

Dr. Barbara Paris, upon the death of her mother, Rose Cammer.

Mrs. Roxana Tetenbaum, upon the death of her father, Joseph Sobie.
